Repeated Reading

Time yourself reading the passage each night for one minute and keep track of how many correct words per minute you read. Record your reading below.

When I was a little girl, I lived on a farm with my Ma and Pa. Pa raised our food and animals, and Ma took care of our home. I raised dragons.

I found my first dragon egg in Miller's cave. When it hatched, I named the dragon Hank and took him home with me. At first, my parents did not want to see or hear about Hank. But I took good care of him. When he was bigger, he took me flying over the countryside at night. It was grand!

Hank helped out around the farm. He plowed the fields. He kept bugs away from the crops. He kept Ma's tomato plants cool during a heat wave. Ma made treats for Hank to eat, and he kept getting bigger.

That year, Hank and I planted too much corn. Pa did not know what to do. But Hank had an idea. He used his fire-breath to turn the corn into popcorn! We sold all of it and made a bunch of money, but it got people talking. They started making a fuss out of our having a dragon on our farm. I realized Hank would have to go.

I read about a dragon island in the middle of the ocean, so I took Hank there. When it was time to return to the farm, I was very sad. Just as I was about to leave, Hank gave me a present: a bunch of dragon eggs! Boy, oh, boy, when those eggs began hatching, I had my work cut out for me!

My goal is to read at least 110 words per minute with 0-2 errors.
This is what I did:
