Repeated Reading

Time yourself reading the passage each night for one minute and keep track of how many correct words per minute you read. Record your reading below.

Amber's Aunt Phoebe is a collector of many interesting things. She 11 tells wonderful stories about them when Amber visits her. Amber 21 grows inside, just from learning what Aunt Phoebe knows. 30

Today Aunt Phoebe shows Amber a long, white piece of adinkra 41 cloth from the country of Ghana. She says that once only kings or 54 other royalty could wear it. She also tells Amber the meanings of the 67 colors and symbols on the cloth. A white cloth means joy. Red means 80 sadness, and blue means love. The symbols on the cloth stand for big 93 ideas, like faith or love. Without saying a word, the long, silk cloth 106 seems to talk! 109

Amber thinks about symbols she'd use for a cloth of her own. She 122 also pictures the symbols she'd use on cloth for her baby brother of 135 father. 136

Now Aunt Phoebe wraps the adinkra cloth around Amber. Amber 146 pictures herself as a princess. Her family and everyone who has worn 158 adinkra cloth stands around her. She feels herself growing inside, just 169 from the knowing. And Amber smiles. 175

My goal is to read at least 110 words per minute with 0-2 errors.
